

Noticing Exercise

Below are some of the qualities and behaviors of great supervisors. Pay attention to your actions as you go through your day. Write down a short note beside a quality or behavior when you are displaying it through your actions. Notice when you are not acting in alignment with something on the list.

Positive

Fair (including the appearance of fairness)

Listening for understanding

Acting with integrity